Chapter 5. Summary of Past Comprehensive Outdoor Recreation Plans

This plan carries on a long history of planning for outdoor spaces and recreation in the City of Kaukauna. In the early 1970s, the Fox Valley Council of Governments prepared a comprehensive plan for the community which included an analysis of future park needs. The plan was updated by the City in 1992 for the 1992-1997 plan then titled 1992-1997 Open Space and Recreation Plan, in 1998 for 1998-2003 and in 2003 again titled 2003-2008 Open Space and Recreation Plan. The most recent plan update was completed in 2010 titled 2010-2015 Open Space and Recreation Plan.

This current plan update is the first plan update to incorporate new features, including:

- Online/digital public input by community members
- An emphasis on non-digital play in an era of digitally native youth
- Geographic Information System data capture on pedestrian-scale signage for parks and trails
- A detailed description and amenity information in a visual format for every park and open space in the City of Kaukauna
